St. Stephen's Girls' College (SSGC), a leading Grant School for girls founded by the Anglican Church, is seeking a Principal. For over 100 years, SSGC has provided young women with an exceptional 'whole person' education in an environment that encourages enquiry, curiosity and involvement. The SSGC education is characterized by enriched, broad-based educational programmes, vigorous academic standards, a stimulating and supportive learning environment, and a strong emphasis on the qualities of leadership, good citizenship, integrity and Christian values.

This is a replacement of the incumbent Principal. The new Principal would ideally be on board in the summer of 2014 but the start date can be discussed.

The ideal candidate would be a seasoned and visionary educator. He/She should be a strong leader with sound administrative abilities, an appreciation for the values and philosophy of the school, and outstanding interpersonal, problem-solving, teambuilding and communications skills. Excellent command of English is a must and ability in Chinese is preferred. The candidate will have to meet the Hong Kong Education Bureau requirements for secondary school principal.

Apply in writing with full resume by 15 February 2014 to:
Professor Angelina Yuen,
Search Committee Chair,
